

Virtual Science Pub: The Secret Life of Squam

Second Tuesdays 6:00 PM

January-May, 2021

January 12

Click Here to Register

The Fungus-lovers: Squam Watershed's Epiparasitic Plants

by Dr. Diana Jolles, Assistant Professor of Botany, Plymouth State University

February 9

Click Here to Register

Soundscapes Beneath the Forest Floor: Soil, Water, and Rock Interactions

by Nikki Lindt, Artist; Lindsey Rustad, Hubbard Brook Research Foundation; and Jenny Bower, PhD Candidate, University of Vermont

March 9

Click Here to Register

Lichens, Mosses, and Liverworts

by Natalie Cleavitt, Research Associate, Dept. Natural Resources, Cornell University

April 13

Click Here to Register

Our Nocturnal Neighbors: New Hampshire's Bats

by Haley Andreozzi, Wildlife Outreach Program Manager, University of New Hampshire Cooperative Extension; and Sandra Houghton, Wildlife Diversity Biologist, NH Fish & Game

May 11

Click Here to Register

Zooplankton: Free-ranging Lake Cattle & Defenders of Water Quality

by James F. Haney, Professor, Center for Freshwater Biology & Ecotoxicology, Department of Biological Sciences, University of New Hampshire

For adults. No charge to attend. Presentations are held via zoom. Register for each session separately using the links above to receive the zoom link via email.

For more information:

Squam Lakes Natural Science Center • 603-968-7194 • nhnature.org